

The Arlington Heights Council of PTAs and School District 25 invite you to the

Cultural Arts Fair

March 14th 6:00-8:30 PM
at Thomas Middle School

1430 North Belmont, Arlington Heights, Illinois

Featuring performances in the Commons, classroom activities, and table displays

2012 Theme: "Diversity Means..."

Reflections Awards at 6:00
Performances start at 6:30
(not listed in order of performance)

Bollywood Dance Group
Classical Indian Dancing
Flamenco Expresivo Dancers
French Singing
Global Folk Tales
Irish Solo Dance
Italian Pop Songs
Ivy Hill Elementary School Chorus
Kung Fu Demonstration
Olive School 3rd Grade Singers
Percussion "Tabla" Performance
South Middle School Choir
Trinity Irish Dancers
Turkish Baglama Performance

Overflow Parking allowed at Olive Elementary & Orchard Evangelical
Free Church (on Belmont)

Classroom & Hallway
Displays/Activities: 6:00-8:30

Ancient Bulgarian Cyrillic Alphabet Exhibit
Art from all District 25 Schools
Chinese Paper Cutting
Croatian Display and Video
Cultural Interchange Program
Crafts of Spain, France, Japan, and China
Drum Circle in the Courtyard
Educational Tour of China Display
Face Painting of Country Flags
Flamenco Expresivo ~ Spanish Dance Display
German Dancing
"Hungry Planet" Movie
International Architecture
Ireland Pride Display
Italian Heritage Display
Japan Student Exchange Highlights
Judaic Chuppah and Display
Kung Fu Display
Multi World Cultures Game Room
Tartans of Scotland Display
Trinity Academy of Irish Dance Display
Turkish Display, Video, and Ebru Marbling Art
PTA Reflections Art ~ "Diversity Means..."
World Map Activity

Join us for a FUN and FREE multi-cultural evening!

"Individuals with disabilities should notify the Building Principal, (847-398-4260), if they have a disability that will require special assistance or services. Please give the building principal advance notice of 24 hours." (Board Policy 8:70)