

Quasquicentennial [kwos-kwi-sen-ten-ee-uhl] noun. A 125th anniversary.

Arlington Heights is Celebrating 125 Years!

HONOR THE PAST

CELEBRATE THE PRESENT

EXPLORE THE FUTURE

Students in Arlington Heights School District 25 Join the celebration!

The theme of the Quasquicentennial celebration is
HONOR THE PAST, CELEBRATE THE PRESENT, EXPLORE THE FUTURE
Make your mark on history by sharing...

What do YOU like about Arlington Heights?

Acrostic Poem

Write an acrostic poem about a favorite person, place, or thing in Arlington Heights.

Art piece

What inspires you in Arlington Heights? Draw, sculpt, paint; be creative!

Essay

Write about what makes Arlington Heights such a special place.

Photo and caption

Take a photo(s) of some of your favorite place(s) in Arlington Heights.
Include a caption explaining the photo.

www.arlingtonheights125.com

The Rules (are simple!)

- Turn in your project by April 30th to Ivy Hill's LMC.
- All projects will be displayed!
- All students who participate will receive a Quasquicentennial bookmark or window cling!
- A selection of projects from each school will be showcased in the Kids' World display cases at the Arlington Heights Memorial Library over the summer in July!

District 25 Quasquicentennial Celebration Project

Please attach this to your project and turn it into Ivy Hill's LMC by April 30th.

Name _____

School _____

Grade _____